An Exciting Ball Game.

The first of a series of five games of base ball between Paris and Lexington was played Sunday afternoon at Hamilton Park.

The game was close and exciting from start to finish, the Lexington team winning out in the last half of the ninth inning by a score of 7 to 6. Paris had the strongest team in the field that ever represented the city and with an even break of luck expect to win the series from Lexington.

About three hundred Paris rooters were highly elated until the little Lexington pitcher batted out a two bagger in the ninth when there was two men on bases, giving Lexington the game. A still larger delegation from this city will witness the game next Sunday.

Miss Whitaker Secures Verdict.

The jury in the Whitaker-Renaker slander suit at Cynthiana rendered a verdict Friday for $3,500 in favor of the plaintiff, Miss Elizabeth Whitaker. The verdict was unanimous.

Mr. Renaker was a member of the Legislature, and is a candidate for State Senator. Miss Whitaker was a county school teacher. The alleged slander was a statement, admitted by Renaker, that the young woman had been guilty of serious misbehavior, and the case was pitched on the truth or falsity of this charge.

The Fall Festival.

We call attention to the page advertisement in this issue of the Fall Festival that opens in this city next Monday morning and continue during the week. The Robinson Amusement Company furnish the amusements and this insures first-class entertainments, for this is undoubtedly the best on the road. The merchants are behind the Festival and it will be a gala week for Paris. Every day will be a red letter day and the week will be a memorable one in the amusement history of Paris.

Big Smoke But Small Fire.

The Fire Department was called to the residence of Mr. Smith Clark, on High street, to extinguish a fire that had gained considerable headway between the ceiling and roof of the kitchen. By quick response to the call and good work the blaze was confined to the kitchen. The property belongs to Miss Maria Tipton. The loss on the house was $500 and Mr. Clark's loss on furniture $400. Both covered by insurance.

Concert at Hopewell.

On Friday evening, Sept. 29th, Mrs. Princess Long will give a concert at Hopewell Church, near Hutchison, admission 25 cents. This entertainment will be for the benefit of the church, and with such a musical program as will be given there should be a packed house.

Another Fayette Killing.

While acting as a peacemaker in an altercation between George Kellum and John Frye, Freeland Kerr was shot and instantly killed Sunday in Fayette by the former. The tragedy occurred on the farm of J. W. Reed, and, it is said, was the result of a quarrel the men engaged in during the early part of the day.

The Colonel's Waterloo.

Colonel John M. Fuller, of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo, from liver and kidney trouble. In a recent letter, he says: "I was nearly dead, of these complaints, and although I tried my family doctor, he did me no good; so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold and guaranteed to cure dyspepsia, biliousness and kidney disease by Oberdorfer the druggist at 50c a bottle.

Mrs. Baird's Beautiful Millinery.

We will venture the assertion that there was not a Fall style creation in Millinery worn at the State Fair that excels the beautiful new pattern hats at Mrs. Corne Watson Baird's. The many busy trimmers arranging for the Fall opening (Saturday, September 30,) are vying with each other and exerting their utmost talents to produce the handsomest line of autumn millinery ever shown in Paris. These creations already completed are perfect gems of beauty and excite universal admiration.

None of the ladies can afford to miss this fashionable opening. Remember, Saturday, September 30, at Mrs. Corne Watson Baird's.

Mrs. Corne W. Baird's Invitation.

TO THE LADIES:

Let me invite you to my Fall Exhibition of Millinery on Saturday, September 30.

I can assure you of the choicest and rarest new ideas, secured in New York, Philadelphia and elsewhere. The pattern hats are beautiful, but scarcely excel in loveliness the striking and attractive creations of American artists. Come and see.

Remember the date, Thursday, September 30.

Respectfully,

MRS. CORNE WATSON BAIRD.

AMUSEMENTS.

REAL COMIC OPERA.

—The Herald Square Opera Co. will present their own version of "Said Pasha" at the Grand to-night.

"Said Pasha" was written by a young California composer, Richard Stahl, to exploit the remarkable range of a well-known high soprano who became famous in the west through her rendition of the music of Serena, the Pasha's daughter. Leona Watson, a recent Cincinnati "discovery," will be heard in this role. Although but two years before the public, she has already made a Broadway appearance in the all-star revival of "Floradora" in New York this past spring.

"Said Pasha" is a laugh producer from start to finish and it will be well worth your time and money to attend the performance to-night.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce Dan W. Peed as a Republican candidate for Jailor of Bourbon county.

We are authorized to announce H. T. Ingram, of Ruddles Mills, as a Republican candidate for County Judge of Bourbon county.
